

Dear Friends,

Thank you for visiting A.B. Distributing, Inc. I am pleased that you have taken the time to check us out and learn more about us. I hope that you will like what you see and will give us a call to allow us to be of service you.

The goal of AB since its beginning in 1989 was to build a company around the principle of personal relationships between us and our partners. This still remains our goal today, and although the internet, fax, email and new technologies make it more difficult to get to know everyone, we continue to strive to achieve this principle.

Whether you are a manufacturer looking for a distributor, a company looking for a partner to help with warehousing, fulfillment or logistics, or a reseller/dealer seeking a source for products or services, I still firmly believe that the best way to do business is to know who you are dealing with.

I encourage you to use our website to gather whatever information you need, but please take the time to call us at (800) 874-3300 and talk to one of our staff members. I am sure you will be pleased that you made the call.

Thank you for your time.
